

Getting Around—Historic Ellicott City

1. First County Fire Station, 1889. Now houses fire fighting memorabilia. Open occasional Sundays and Heritage Weekends in September. Main Street at Church Road.
2. Emory Methodist Church, 1837. Remodeled and enlarged in 1880. 3799 Church Road.
3. Old Stone Powell House. Private residence, built in 1840. 3791 Church Road.
4. The Old Manse served for many years as the parsonage of the Presbyterian Church. 3788 Church Road.

5. Angelo Cottage. Artist Samuel Vaughn built the Gothic Revival structure in the early 1830s. 3749 Church Road.

6. Patapsco Female Institute, fine school for girls, Jan. 1, 1837. Greek Revival style, designed by Robert Carey Long, Jr. Ruins have been stabilized as an historic park. 3655 Church Road. For access, see #7. +
7. Mount Ida, 1827. Last home built by an Ellicott. Presently the Visitors Center of Patapsco Female Institute Historic Park. 3691 Sarah's Lane. +

8. Howard County Jail, 1878. Architecturally unique, a.k.a. Willow Grove. 1 Emory Street.
9. Hayden Home, later Oaklawn Seminary, 1841. Part of wing to rear of Courthouse. 8360 Court House Drive.
10. Howard County Courthouse, 1843. Atop Capitoline Hill. Sometimes referred to as Mt. Misery. 8360 Court House Drive.
11. Howard County Historical Society Building, 1894. Formerly First Presbyterian Church. 8328 Court Avenue. +

12. Early Quaker Schoolhouse, ca. 1790. Presently houses Historical Society Library. 8324 Court Avenue. +
13. Old Court House, early 1800s. Originally a private residence, used as a courthouse for Howard District of Anne Arundel Co. Currently houses a timeline exhibit on the history of Ellicott City. Behind #14. 8398 Main Street. +
14. Thomas Isaac Log Cabin, 1780. Oldest surviving residential structure in Ellicott City. Reconstructed on this site and currently a living history site featuring colonial life in Ellicott City on the National Road. 8398 Main Street. +
15. Union Hotel, earliest portion 1820s. Was operated by Mrs. Deborah Disney as Disney's Hotel from 1840 to 1860s. Now divided as stores and residences. 8298-8304 Main Street.
16. Tongue Row, early 1840s. Owned by widow Ann Tonge as rental property, now filled with specialty shops. 3722-3744 Old Columbia Pike.
17. Ellicott Cemetery. Established in 1795 by Ellicott brothers 23 years after founding the town of Ellicott Mills. Adjacent to #18.

18. Quaker Meeting House, 1799. Built by Elkridge Preparatory Quaker Meeting. Converted to private residence. 3771 Old Columbia Pike.
19. The Howard House, 1850. Once a busy Main Street hotel. Currently apartments and retail. 8202 Main Street.
20. Walker Chandler House. Early American structure, now filled with art objects, gifts and antiques. 8180 Main Street.
21. Early Stone Tavern later enlarged and called "The New Town Hall." Once a Civil War prisoner holding site, it is now used for a business. 8044-8046 Main Street.
22. Former Patapsco Hotel, rebuilt in 1925. Original second floor served as passenger waiting room in early days of B&O Railroad. 8004-8026 Main Street.

23. B&O Railroad Station, 1831. The oldest railroad station in America. Currently a living history museum featuring 19th-century interpretive programs. 2711 Maryland Avenue. +
24. St. Paul's Catholic Church, 1830s. Site of Babe Ruth's first wedding. 3755 St. Paul Street.
25. Old Patapsco Bank, 1840. In 1920, became a parochial school for St. Paul's Preparatory School. 3755 St. Paul Street.
26. Site of original Ellicott Lower Mills, where they were commercially milling flour by 1774. 27 Frederick Road.
27. Residence of George Ellicott, 1789, relocated and restored. 24 Frederick Road.
28. The Bridge Market, ca. 1790. Built by the Ellicotts, later became Radcliffe's Emporium and coal yard. Used as offices today. 8000 Main Street.

+ Open to the public.